Life-changing win for Elk Point shopper

ONE MIGHTY BIG CHEQUE! Federated Co-operatives Ltd.'s $100,000 grand prize winner from the 2017 Fuel Up to Win contest comes from right here in Elk Point. Tonya Beeching, Kyle Tingey and their son Nathan got some help from Cornerstone Co-op general manager Graham Getz and the Co-op mascot, Cooper, to hold up the giant cheque at Thursday morning's presentation.

A growing and excited crowd packed the entrance of Cornerstone Co-op's Elk Point food store on Thursday morning, re-routing incoming shoppers into the store through the exit, but the crowd parted when a very excited Tonya Beeching came through the door, accompanied by Kyle Tingey and their young son, Nathan.

Among those eagerly awaiting her arrival was Cornerstone general manager Graham Getz, who told the gathering, "It's not every day we have the ability to change someone's life."

According to a Co-op press release, when Beeching was told over the phone she had won $100,000 in a Co-op contest, she originally thought it was a scam.

"I was kind of freaking out," said the Elk Point resident "I was pacing up and down and totally in shock."

Beeching, a member of Cornerstone Co-op, won the grand prize in a random draw of online entries in Federated Co-operatives' 2017 Fuel Up to Win contest after no one collected the seven game stickers needed in the Collect to Win portion of the promotion.

She said her family will take a small trip to celebrate, but is looking to pay off debts and invest most of the money in order to save for a down payment on a home.

More than $8 million in prizes were available to Co-op customers in this year's Fuel Up to Win contest, Getz said. The eight-week promotion ran Feb. 24 to April 20 at Co-op food Stores, gas bars, convenience stores and home centres across western Canada.

"We're excited to present the grand prize to one of our local Co-op members," said Getz. "Fuel Up to Win goes beyond being a normal contest, as we're also able to make two community donations, which is a big win for our entire community."

The community donation from Federated Co-op Ltd. was shared by two organizations with projects in Elk Point and district.

Chamber brainstorming brings forth website need

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce held their final meeting before the two-month summer break, with the results of the May 17 brainstorming session a highlight of the agenda.

Melanie Poulin and Jena Colbourne, who spearheaded the session, reported that one of the outcomes was a need to come up with one-, five- and 20-year goals for the organization. Another was the need for a chamber website, Poulin said. "It might be a good starting point. Businesses could have links to it, because we need to make connections with businesses and find out what they can offer." The members later voted to have a website developed, Poulin commenting that it could become "a voice for the business community."

Marketing ideas, from 24-hour contact information for businesses to pushing for broadband Internet and encouraging businesses to offer online shopping were also brought forward at the session.

Bob Bezpalko of Alberta HUB was the guest speaker at the May 17 session and urged the group to think and work together on a regional basis. St. Paul has received a CARES grant and is working on a strategic plan for the region, and he felt Elk Point should get involved in the process.

Another idea put forward at the session was using the knowledge of chamber members to expand the knowledge of other members on topics from accounting to setting up social media accounts.

Summer is fast approaching, and thanks to a federal employment grant, the chamber will have the tourist information office open from Wednesday to Sunday of each week from June 21 to the latter half of August.

One very large group of visitors coming through town will be the Canada 150 Voyageurs Rendezvous canoe race. Coun. Dwayne Yaremkevich said the Town of Elk Point will be supplying overnight camping space and washroom facilities at the river campground and at the Iron Horse Trail staging area for the July 7 visit.

Co-op financial report reflects economic hardships

JD SCHMIDT
Review Contributor

The St. Paul and District Co-op presented its annual Financial, Board, and Manager's Reports in a meeting on Thursday evening. The lower-than-normal finances in that report are indicative of the current economic downturn burdening the province.

Each report was given with a focus and interest on "insight and transparency about our 2016 operations, but also about the future and what's in store for the Co-op," said General Manager Graham Getz.

During the meeting, St. Paul and District Co-operative Association Limited reported $83,745,484 in sales in their 2016 financial statement, down about $4.4 million from 2015. After subtracting operating expenses ($14,399,670), patronage refunds ($3,303,337) cost of goods sold ($69,834,605) and other costs, the Co-op reported a net savings of $2,599,374 compared to 2015's net savings of $4,109,911.

"We can't blame the economy for lower net savings," said St. Paul Co-op Financial Controller Brad Belton. "But we can understand and appreciate the numbers with the economy in mind. We were still able to give back over $3 million in patronage refunds, and it always feels good to give back. We still have a lot of optimism for the future and are positive about the direction of our Co-op."

In the Board Report, President Cliff Martin described the vision that the Board of Directors has for the Cornerstone Co-op by reviewing their purpose and mission statement, amended last year.

"We are committed to our community by building, feeding, and fueling our customers," Martin said. "We provide outstanding Co-op experiences that connects our members, communities, and employees, and we strive to be the leader in Co-operative excellence and the cornerstone of our communities."

Getz presented the Manager's report, which included important partnership news about Co-op's community involvement.

"In Wainwright on Tuesday (June 6), we announced a Cornerstone Co-op partnership with Falcon Enterprises," Getz reported.

"This partnership represents a $10,000 commitment for Falcon to grow their operations and strengthen their business. Falcon Enterprises is a local group that will continue to help integrate people with disabilities into the work force."

"Also, this morning (June 8), we made a major announcement in Elk Point at the Food Store. The 2017 Fuel Up to Win grand prize winner of $100,000 was one of our lucky Elk Point members. We also had the opportunity to give out $25,000 to community groups and local organizations, including the Elk Point Fire Department, and Elk Point FCSS. We are also currently working on other Cornerstone Co-op community partnerships which will be revealed in the future."

The reports didn't feature any information regarding the new renovations and Cornerstone Co-op facilities, but that information can be expected next year.

"The 2017-2018 year will be the first full year of depreciation for the Home Centre and other facilities," Belton said. "So, you can expect the 2017 report to feature those numbers."

Representatives of the County of St. Paul and Elk Point Family and Community Support Services (FCSS) came forward to accept $20,000, which will go toward the Pickleball Club's project of upgrading the town's aging tennis courts into an outdoor Pickleball court, while four members of the Elk Point Volunteer Fire Department accepted $5,000 that will go toward the purchase of new equipment.

FCSS Board chair Glen Ockerman, who was joined by County of St. Paul and Elk Point FCSS director Janice Fodchuk to accept the cheque, said Elk Point "holds a dear place in my heart, and it couldn't run without businesses like the Co-op. It makes the community a stronger, better place to live." He added thanks to the Co-op board members for their dedication to Elk Point and its people.

Deputy Fire Chief Mike Ernst thanked Co-op on behalf of the fire department, and said the department enjoys a strong relationship with the local store, including working with Co-op on the annual pre-Christmas food drives each year.

Pickleball Club in on the win!

Review Contributor

Great news for the Pickleball Club this week, as they were awarded a $20,000 grant from the Elk Point FCSS and the Elk Point Co-op. Pickleball is the fastest growing sport in the world and with clubs in the area desperate for outdoor courts this grant will put our community above all the rest in the area. The club plans on using the funds to refurbish the current tennis courts and paint proper lines. This will allow the club to host tournaments that'll attract clubs from all over the province - and maybe even further! ((Always dream big!))

Speaking of big dreams, if your non-profit group or facility is in need of funding, be sure to get your Community Enhancement Grant application in on or before June 15 at 12 noon. It must be delivered to the Town Office in person or by mail. If you need an application call 780-207-5898 or email recreation@elkpoint.ca.

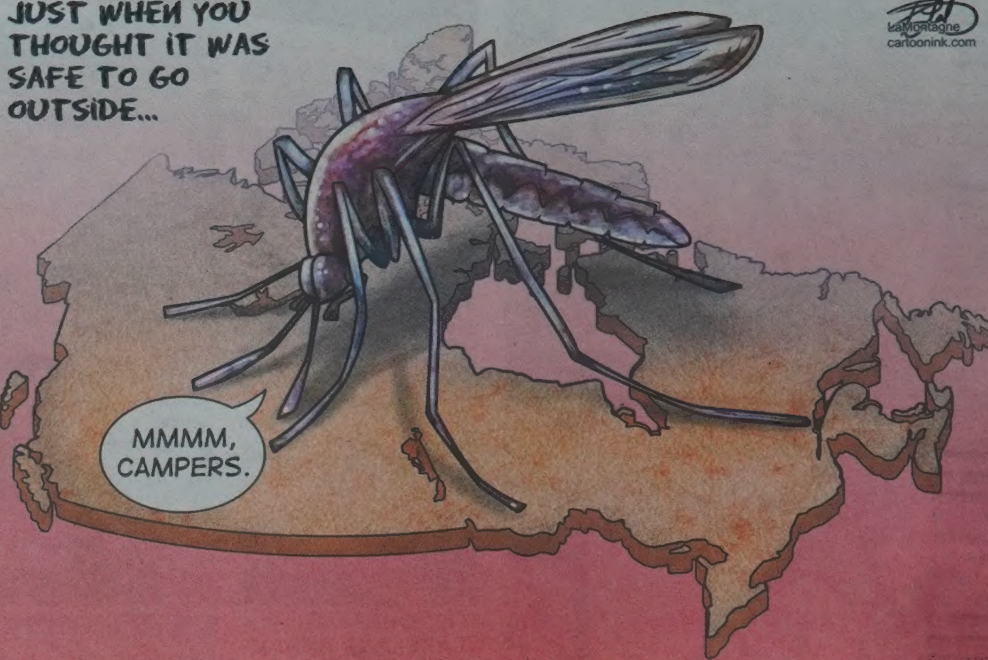

Canada Day is just weeks away! I couldn't be more excited! A couple things to note for this year:

1. The parade lineup is from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. No late entries will be judged. You can drop your float off and head down to the pancake breakfast at the library so you're not waiting in line for too long. Bike riders are asked to come for 10:30 a.m. Registration is strongly encouraged, call Diane 780-646-0648. The parade begins at 11:00 a.m.

2. The Crusader Reunion is from 1 to 3 p.m. with a school open house. There will be old yearbooks and photos on display. Classes are asked to coordinate their own rendezvous. There will be a photographer on site to take photos of old classmates on the steps of F. G. Miller during that time.

4-H show achievements, STARS success, show and shine

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 12 IN...

1987

Dwayne Vogel and Cody Kurek showed Elk Point's 4-H Grand Champions, with Michael Yushyshyn showing the reserve champion steer and Jeff Orr the reserve champion heifer. "Nothing Will Stop Us Now" declared Heinsburg School's Class of 1987 at their graduation exercises, where adult student Pat Goertzen gave the valedictory address, stating, "We stand in awe of all that awaits us."

1992

Richard Piotrowski showed the reserve champion heifer at the 4-H District Heifer Show, while his sister Carrie won Junior Showmanship, and Robyn Danyluk won Junior Grooming at both that and the District Steer Show, where she also won Junior Showmanship. The Elk Point Review won its first Canadian Community Newspapers blue ribbon award as one of the nation's top papers in its circulation category.

1997

Elk Point's Pen of Five took top honours at the St. Paul District 4-H Show and Sale, with Jaylynn Wirsta and Mark Ference placing first and second in the Junior Grooming. Japanese teaching intern Mikiko Shimano introduced the gentle art of the tea ceremony to Elk Point Elementary School's Grade 2 students, along with demonstrations of origami, calligraphy and flower arranging.

2002

The third annual STARS Golf tournament was another great success, with 90 golfers taking part in the air ambulance fundraiser, and Pete Stafford, Scott Penz, Dalyn Orsten, Tyson Stafford and Steve Penz taking home 'Survivor' style torches for low score. Sixty-nine vehicles of "stunning quality" took part in the Elk Point Auto Club Show and Shine, according to chamber president Glenn Harms, who said exhibitors "were coming to win."

2007

nic in decades, and paid tribute to the area's pioneers with the unveiling of a handmade fieldstone monument adjacent to the community hall. Lions Keith Campbell, Ryan Hahn, Leonard Gadowski, Roland Gascon and Mike MacDonald were the low score winners at the STARS Golf tournament.

2012

Twenty-seven teams totalling 108 damp, wind-blown, but far from disheartened golfers took part in the Elk Point Emergency Services Golf Tournament, enjoying what Lyle Frisby of the organizing committee called, "One of the best soggy days of golf in a long time."

A SPRING LAMB from the Klatt family's herd was more than willing to get some attention from the Jack and Jill Playschool crowd when Darryl Klatt brought him out of the pen for a little up-close-and-personal attention from little visitors.

Steers shown by Taylor Dechaine of St. Lina 4-H Beef Club and Brooke Kotowich of St. Paul 4-H Multi Club received the ceremonial slap of approval on Monday evening as conformation judge Tyson Bieleny made his final inspection of a field of 17 steers chosen from seven weight classes at the St. Paul District 4-H Market Steer Show and Sale.

Dechaine's shiny black, 1536-pound steer was named the district's 2017 Grand Champion, receiving the Masterfeeds banner and the St. Paul District 4-H Council trophy, and was later sold to Lewis Farms for $3 per pound.

Kotowich accepted the Caouette and Sons Implements banner and the County of St. Paul No. 19 trophy for her 1479-pound Reserve Champion, which sold to Lakeland Family Eyecare for $3.45 per pound.

Other final contenders in the Parade of Champions were shown by Georgia Sallstrom of Boscombe 4-H Multi Club, Kailey Wirsta, Luke Dechaine and Heidi Tymko of Elk Point 4-H Beef Club, Kyle Yaremko, Jonathan Kotowich, Rebecca Kotowich, Megan Kotowich, Tyson Kotowich, Ryan Fodchuk and Mercedes Trefanenko of St. Paul 4-H Multi Club, Tyler Jodoin, Bree Seguin, RyAnne Dechaine, and Alexa Locke of St. Lina 4-H Beef Club.

"This is one of the best shows I get to go to," Beileny said in his final remarks, remarking on the strong cutability and ability to finish of the steers he had scrutinized.

The Parade of Champions came at the end of a long day of competition, which began with both individual and team judging, selection of the top Pen of Five and the judging of junior, intermediate and senior showmanship and grooming by Kyle and Brittany Boss. Throughout the day, the St. Paul County agricultural fieldmen toured the barn area as they determined the Stall Display winners.

In the earlier competitions, St. Paul members displayed the first place Pen of Five, taking the TD Canada Trust, St. Paul award, with Elk Point's five coming second. St. Paul also placed first in Club Judging for the AGSI-CPS award, Elk Point again placing second for the Wozniak Bulk Fuels award.

Individual judging winners, with prize donors in brackets, were: Junior - 1. Emily Yaremko, St. Paul (Grace Gardens Funeral Chapel), 2. Dawson Dechaine, Boscombe (St. Paul District 4-H Council); Intermediate - 1. Cameron Kuzma, St. Paul (AGSI-CPS), 2. Rebecca Kotowich, St. Paul (AGSI-CPS); Senior - 1. Heidi Tymko, Elk Point (St. Paul Municipal Seed Cleaning Assn.), 2. Jamie Kuzma, St. Paul (Ron Wirsta).

The Daily Gain trophy from Master Feeds went to Taylor Dechaine of St. Lina, for a steer gaining 4.07 pounds per day.

Grooming winners were: Junior - 1. Mercedes Trefanenko, St. Paul (Tri-Ag Implements), 2. Tyson Kotowich, St. Paul (Century 21 Poirier Realty); Intermediate - 1. Lexi Wirsta, Elk Point (Lakeland Family Eyecare), 2. Kyle Yaremko, St. Paul (Fountain Tire); Senior - 1. Heidi Tymko (Smyl Motors), 2. Kristina Kotowich, St. Paul (St. Paul District 4-H Council).

Showmanship winners were: Junior - 1. Dawson Dechaine (Agland), 2. Emily Yaremko (ATB Financial); Intermediate - 1. Kailey Wirsta, Elk Point (Terry Holmgren), 2. Brooke Kotowich, St. Paul (TD Canada Trust, St. Paul); Senior - 1. Heidi Tymko (Servus Credit Union), 2. Jamie Kuzma (ATB Financial).

Stall Display winners were Boscombe Multi Club, first for the Hi Pro Feeds trophy, and St. Lina, second.

This year's show celebrated 100 years of 4-H in Alberta, with special guest Cameron Horner, a former member of the St. Paul 4-H Multi Club who is now with Alberta Agriculture's 4-H Branch, telling 4-Hers, their families and other spectators that Alberta's first 4-H club was a swine club out of the Olds School of Agriculture, which resulted in improved seed stock. Over the years, clubs exhibiting sheep, beef and dairy cattle, grain and numerous other projects were added to what Horner says has now become "THE premiere youth organization in the province."

A pair of massive birthday cakes celebrating the century of 4-H were served at the supper, which was hosted by the County of St. Paul. Earlier in the day, 4-Hers and their families enjoyed breakfast courtesy of Servus Credit Union.

At the sale following the show, an additional 60 steers ranging in size from 888 to 1,615 pounds sold for an average price of $2.64 per pound.

4-HERS HELPING 4-HERS - The final steer to be auctioned was the Charity Calf, escorted into the ring by the entire St. Paul Multi Club. The steer was donated and raised by the Trefanenko family, with Robertson Group Ltd. covering the cost of feed. The steer sold for $3.40 per pound to Xtreme Oilfield, with all the proceeds going to the Randy Horton family (above left), who are members of the Goodridge 4-H Beef Club, and who lost their home to fire this spring.

On behalf of the Mayor & Council we congratulate Elk Point 4-H Beef Club on their achievements at the District 4-H Shows & Sale.

Jack and Jill Class of 2017

Jack and Jill Playschool celebrated the accomplishments of their Class of 2017 last Thursday. Left to right are: Luke Osinchuk, John Garnier, Savannah Erickson, Parker Preddy, Hudson Krankowsky, Hunter Pankiw, Kouper Tizzard, Sadie Gladue, Jaxxon Schell, Montana Sharkey, Lincoln Jurak, Derwin Panganiban (Missing: Frank Killam). Playschool families enjoyed the beautiful day starting with a ranch animal tour, shown below, followed by a delicious potluck meal and ending with a graduation ceremony. The students sang some graduation songs and were presented with handmade graduation pins, personalized gold glittered crowns and picture memory booklets from teacher Tammy Klatt. The students also received embroidered towels from Jack and Jill Playschool. Thanks to Prairie Tech's Dwayne and Tracy Vogel, everyone enjoyed a large tent to provided much needed shade! Have a great summer and see you in the fall!

SPAEC, Outreach grads celebrate completion

JANICE HUSER
Review Contributor

Another solid group of graduates celebrated the completion of their high school education through St. Paul Alternate Education Centre (SPAEC) and Elk Point Outreach School (EPOS), with 25 names included on the schools' graduation list.

On June 8, friends, family and staff from the outreach schools gathered at the St. Paul Senior Citizens Centre to applaud the efforts and accomplishments of the class of 2017.

Speaking first to the students was SPAEC principal Andrea Austin. She noted that she was very proud to be celebrating the day with the graduates, saying, "You have achieved a great milestone."

While high school graduation is a big deal, and the day was a celebratory one, Austin reminded students that as they move through life, "you are likely going to fail, but that's how you succeed."

She added that adulthood doesn't come with a guidebook, and while it's good to make plans, we must also all be prepared for the unexpected. Much of anyone's success is largely based on how we get along with others, and work ethic.

St. Paul Education Regional Division board chair Heather Starosielski also spoke to the graduates, offering them more advice, as they sat on the stage. She reminded graduates to "never ever" judge their worth on the size of their pay cheque, noting that while NHL athletes make millions of dollars, daycare workers often make minimum wage.

"Life is not fair," she added, and "Everyone makes mistakes." But, she encouraged graduates to remember to forgive others, and also to forgive themselves when mistakes are made.

Another simple piece of advice she offered was to "be kind," and "what goes around, comes around."

"Remember, the first step can be the hardest," said Starosielski, as she wrapped up her speech. "Take it one step at a time."

Ramona Cardinal from Saddle Lake Education also took time to speak to students. She too acknowledged that life isn't always easy, but "thank you for sticking it out."

Then, Glenda Bristow, director of Technology and Programs with SPERD; Alice Quinney, SPERD's Saddle Lake Community Advocate; and Cliff Cardinal, SPERD elder, presented each student with an eagle feather. Cardinal explained that the eagle feather is a representation of high you can go in life, and acknowledges the hard work put in by the graduates.

"We're offering you the spirit of this high flying grandfather," said Cardinal, adding, the spirit will guide and protect those who receive it.

Class valedictorian Kiana Dumont took to the podium to address her fellow graduates. She explained that many of the SPAEC and EPOS students were pulled out of their comfort zone when they began attending the programs, getting to know the process and the teachers that would help them along the way.

But, over time, the graduates progressed as individuals, and in the end, created a united community they were all part of.

Dumont also spoke on her mixed feelings toward graduation day, saying, "As much as I've looked forward to this day, I've always disliked endings."

Along with being named valedictorian, Dumont also received the Most Improved Student award from SPAEC.

A number of other awards were also handed out at the graduation ceremony.

Blaze Oseemeemow received the Knowledge and Employability award and the Citizenship Award. She was described as a hard worker, who represented the SPAEC program incredibly well as she completed her work placement.

In Elk Point, both the Leadership Award and the Student of the Year Award were given to Andee Dion for being a positive role model, who always puts family first. Dion achieved her full high school diploma through EPOS.

The Norma Robinson Sunflower Award is also handed out annually, and this year it went to Seth Wahsatnow.

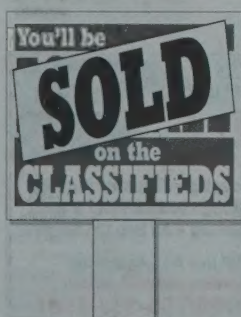

The joint Class of 2017 includes Tyra Ashton, Raven "Ratch" Berland, Thunder Bird, Weston Bidlock, Amber Cardinal, Cole Dechaine, Andee Dion, Kiana Dumont, Brant Halfe, Addie Halme, Gregory Huk, Stuart Kotowich, Levi Lessard, Shanna McGilvery, Kathleen Moosewah, Blaze Oseemeemow, Christian Pechat, Tristan Pinder, Ally Pirzek, Janell Quinney, Benjamin Schmidt, Levi Tingey, Cree Singer, Jasmine Votour and Seth Wahsatnow.

New crunch time heroes

I love it when this happens! Here's two kids that never played organized ball before this year, coming through in the crunch to be the team heroes. This past Wednesday night the Bantam Sox were down by two runs in their final at bat... and with two runners on and two out and with two strikes on the batter, who was none other than the first year Zach 'Clear the Track' Tehir - he cranks the ball up the middle through the gap, scoring two runs to tie the game. Next up, the other first year player on this team, Colton 'Colt 45' Van Maaron, with the same count, two strikes, a runner on base, and the game tied, he pulls the trigger, driving one through the gap on the right side to score Zach and win the game. And the team goes berserk!! Love it!! Colton 'Big Mac' McLean, on the mound for his first time this year, pitched the last two innings, keeping the game close. He also hit a big double earlier in the game.

The same night, up in Bonnyville, the Peeewe Girls had a great night too, Sadie Baker getting the starting assignment pitching, she did amazing for two innings, bringing in Mykaela Verenka, who pitched next and kept the momentum going, bringing in Paige Skarsen, who closed out the game, with the help of her infield and outfielders of course, including Sadie Baker who caught a tough pop fly in center field for the final out, the Pumas winning 17 to 15.

A pretty nasty start to the weekend, with wind and rain, but that didn't deter our Peeewe AA team, the North Stars, who won all three game this past weekend in provincial play in Millwoods. Jaden 'Jetstream' Van Maaron getting the call to start the first game against the South West Sox, going four strong innings and striking out four batters. Andon 'Ace' Ballas came in and closed out the game in the fifth inning and didn't allow a run, the North Stars winning 18 to 2 after five innings. The boys were really pounding the ball, five home runs out of the park. Sunday morning they played some awesome defense against the Edmonton Angels, winning again, this one 11 to 1. Sunday afternoon against the St. Albert Cardinals, 'Mic Jager' Fontaine was up on the hill, struggled a little at first but put it together and chucked three strong innings. Kobe 'the Cobra' Warawa on second base coming up with some huge defensive plays, the final 14 to 10 for the North Stars.

Back here at home on Saturday morning, it was just as miserable and because of the heavy rain the night before, head coach of the newly formed Mosquito AA team, Dennell Anderson needed to postpone the first game scheduled for 9 a.m., until noon to allow for the wind and sun, floor dry and lots of ground work by herself to dry the diamond. The AA Mosquitoes team had just entered in to provincials for the June start, and were asked to host the first weekend of round robin. Usually it's not a problem... but that was an inch and half of rain over 24 hours. Vaughn 'the Vulture' Ockerman with a triple and a single in their first game against Sherwood Park, the Sox losing this one. In their second game, the Sox coming up with a huge win 19 to 1 win over Camrose. 'The Vulture', with ten Ks in four innings, pitched. Game three, the Sox losing to Leduc. Kaleb Flamand with two singles in this one, his brother Madden 'Mad Dog' Flamand, Janyka Evans Anderson and brother Raif 'Rug Rat' Evans

MOSQUITOES NO. 2 team in Elizabeth Colony Thursday.

Anderson sharing the pitching duties.

The weather was not much better down in Heisler when our Bantam AA provincial team traveled there on Saturday, and the results were not great either. The boys' bats were cold and wet and just didn't produce a whole lot of runs, the Sox losing to the host 15 to 4 and to Stettler 14 to 7.

And now for the K. A. Campbell quote of the week. "You gotta be a man to play baseball for a living, but you gotta have a lot of little boy in you, too." - Roy Campanella

TIME OUT! Vaughn Ockerman called a time out for a conference with pitcher Kaleb Flamand. No coaches involved.

Public hearing dates set for Electoral Boundaries changes

JANICE HUSER
Review Contributor

public meetings.
Overall, Andersen says he is “pretty disappointed” in the report, which splits the Town of St. Paul apart from the rest of the area, putting the town in the same electoral boundary as the City of Fort Saskatchewan.
He adds that the proposed boundaries split the “natural business” that take place in the area, along with splitting up municipalities that are already working cooperatively on projects.

Andersen added that it looks like the commission was simply looking at numbers when drawing the lines, and didn’t considering that the Town of St. Paul and City of Fort Saskatchewan really have no ties to each other.

And like others have noted, the mayor is also worried that the proposal would take away the rural voice.

Andersen says he was planning on meeting with local Wildrose MLA Dave Hanson to discuss the report, last week, and that the matter was expected to come up at last night’s regular town council meeting.

When the interim report came out in May, Hanson also voiced opposition to the proposed changes, along with other elected and municipal officials in the area.

Andersen said he would very much like to see a commission meeting take place locally. “They dissected this constituency,” he says, as he points out that neighbouring communities like Saddle Lake and Elk Point would be in a different constituency, and he does not feel that is right.

“I think they can draw the lines a bit better than they have . . . We have so much in common out here. To take St. Paul out (of the riding) is completely ridiculous.”

Current public hearing dates set include: July 17 in Grande Prairie; July 18 in Vermilion; July 19 in Edmonton; July 20 in Calgary; and July 21 in Brooks. Anyone wanting to make a presentation at a public hearing must register in advance with the commission.

More information on the meetings and registration is available online at <http://abebc.ca/>

While they may be at odds on many issues, both the Alberta NDP and Wildrose are urging the Alberta Electoral Boundaries Commission to give Albertans more time to offer their feedback on the Electoral Boundaries Commission 2016-17 Interim Report, which proposes a number of changes.

On June 2, Edmonton-Highlands Norwood NDP MLA Brian Mason and Olds-Didsbury-Three Hills Wildrose MLA Nathan Cooper, wrote to the chair of the Electoral Boundaries Commission to ask for an extension in the commission’s current deadline for submissions, according to a media release from the Alberta NDP.

The house leaders of their respective parties are also asking the commission to expand the number of public meetings currently scheduled, to allow for greater public participation and consultation on the proposed boundaries.

“How people elect their representatives and participate in the democratic process is something that is extremely important to Albertans,” said Mason, in the media release.

“The Interim Report proposes significant changes to the boundaries of electoral districts across the province, and because of this, we believe that Albertans may need more time to share their opinions on this vital part of our democracy,” said Cooper.

Currently the commission has scheduled five hearings in various communities across Alberta to receive feedback on their Initial Report, which was released on May 25. The deadline for written submissions is July 8.

“We need more meetings than just five,” says Town of St. Paul Mayor Glenn Andersen, when speaking on the matter.

In the letter, Cooper and Mason note that the request is being made due to the amount of feedback being received, as well as interest from Albertans to submit their comments regarding the proposed changes.

The 2009 commission had 25 public meetings to discuss the proposed changes, which is what Cooper and Mason would like to see, instead of just the five currently scheduled

BE MORTGAGE-FREE FASTER

Is one of your primary financial goals to own your home free and clear? If so, we have strategies to help you become mortgage-free faster.

Shorten your mortgage with these Servus payment options:

PROFIT SHARE

Use the Profit Share you receive each year and apply it to your mortgage.

MAKE A LARGER DOWN PAYMENT

Don't borrow as much money in the first place and you'll have that mortgage paid off sooner.

INCREASE YOUR PAYMENT FREQUENCY

By making weekly or bi-weekly mortgage payments and paying more towards your principal, you will save thousands of dollars in interest and shorten the amount of time it takes to pay off your mortgage.

INCREASE YOUR PAYMENT AMOUNT

If your mortgage has an option to increase your payment amount, and you can afford it, boost your payments a little.

MAKE LUMP SUM PAYMENTS

If you have an open mortgage you can pay money towards your principal any time. If you have a closed mortgage you may have the option to make annual lump sum payments. You can also make a lump sum payment when your mortgage term comes up for renewal, before your new term comes into effect.

SELECT A SHORTER AMORTIZATION PERIOD

Decide how much you can afford each month. If you can afford higher mortgage payments then select a shorter amortization and save thousands of dollars in interest.

You don't need to make these decisions alone. Our financial advisors can help you decide how best to meet your financial goals.
